Note:

- Any type of dangerous goods occurrence must be reported, irrespective of whether the dangerous good are contained in cargo, mail or baggage.
- A dangerous goods accident is an occurrence associated with and related to the transport of dangerous goods which result in fatal or serious injury to a person or major property damage. For this purpose, serious injury is an injury which is sustained by a person in an accident and which: (a) requires hospitalization for more than 48 hours, commencing from the time the injury was received;(b) result in a fracture of any bones (except small fractures of fingers, toes or nose) ;(c) involves lacerations which cause severe haemorrhage, nerve, muscle or tendon damage; (d) involves injury to any internal organ; (e) involves second or third degree burns; or any burns affecting more than 5% of the body surface; or (f) involves verified exposure to infectious substances or injurious radiation. A dangerous goods accident may also be an aircraft accident; in which case the normal procedure for dangerous goods accidents must be followed.
- A dangerous goods incident is an occurrence, other than a dangerous goods accident, associated with and related to the transport of dangerous goods, not necessarily occurring on board an aircraft, which results in injury to a person, property damage, fire ,breakage ,spillage ,leakage of fluid or radiation or other evidence that the integrity of the packing has not been maintained. Any occurrence relating to the transport of dangerous goods which seriously jeopardizes the aircraft or its occupants is also deemed to constitute a dangerous goods incident.
- This form may also be used to report any occasion when undeclared or misdeclared dangerous goods are discovered in cargo or when baggage contains dangerous goods which passengers are not permitted to take on board aircraft.
- An initial report should be dispatched within 72 hours of the occurrence, unless exceptional circumstances prevent this. The initial report may be made by any means but a written report should be sent as soon as possible, even if all the information is not available.
- Completed reports are normally sent to the competent authority.
- Copies of all relevant documents should be included with the report.

8. Providing it is safe to do so, all dangerous goods, packaging's, documents etc. relating to the occurrence must be retained until after the initial report has been made.
9. Requirements and procedures differ from state to state, it is recommended that the local competent authority be contacted in order to clarify the exact procedures to be followed in the event of a dangerous goods incident or accident.
